Standard Policies

There will be a $5 extra charge for fleshing and/or salting where necessary on poorly prepared hides. A $25 storage and handling fee will be applied for frozen or salt dried hides that are not completed in our process at the request of the customer.

Please do not send badly felted hides. These will be returned at your expense.

I do not accept mature Llamas or any size Alpaca. The matting in the hair does not yield a quality product. I do not accept game sheep capes.

50% down payment sent with all orders. Minimum insurance on return is $100. Additional insurance can be purchased at the request of the customer. We are not responsible for shipping carrier errors. This includes lost and/or damaged packages in transit. All tanning must be paid for in full before shipping. If paying with a personal check, orders will be held 10 business days until the check clears the bank. Tracking numbers will be sent out, but packages will not be placed in transit until funds clear.

Mastercard and Visa payments accepted with a signed note with the card number and expiration date on it.

Due to the critical importance of factors involved in the harvesting of an animal, as well as the preparation of the hide prior to sending it to me, ALL TANNING IS DONE AT YOUR OWN RISK.
